WASHINGTON.

The River and Harbor Bill Ready for the President.

LONG DEBATES IN THE SENATE.

Action of the Conference Committees on Disputed Measures—The Northern Pacific Forfeiture Bill to be Dropped—Etc

SENATE

WASHINGTON, Aug. —Hale, from the conference committee on the deficiency bill, submitted a report and proceeded to explain it in regard to certain items for income tax paid by non-resident [illegible], which had been regularly estimated for and which the house had partially, and the senate entirely put in the bill. It had turned out, he said, that there were objections to some of these [illegible] by the senate, and the conferees recommended that these items be referred back to the secretary of the treasury with instructions to report the facts to congress at the next session. He explained as to the item for the Brazil steamship company that the appropriation is struck out and a clause substituted directing the postmaster general to report at the next session the amount of services rendered and the sum justly and equitably due. The item to pay the Central Pacific railway for services rendered on its non-subsidized lines was struck out.

He was asked how the appropriation bills of this session compared with those of preceding sessions with respect to the omission by the house of items of appropriation absolutely necessary to the operation of the government, depending upon the republicans to put them in.

He replied that in his opinion this practice of the house was becoming worse from year to year. The senate found the bills sent over from the house fractional and incomplete. It would find, for example, a place in the regular estimate that one third of the items had been left out, while there was no difference in point of merit between those omitted and those included. This gave rise to statements more or less discriminatory in another [illegible] the government as to the extravagance of the senate, while the fact was the senate was very careful to put in nothing that was not necessary to the running of the government. There were impatient utterances at being charged with the increased appropriations, and he was bound to say for the committee on appropriations that in dealing with this the project had not been treated as a party affair, democratic members having manifested the same impatience as republicans.

Edmunds read from the book of estimates the items of deficiency estimated for by heads of departments aggregating more than $8,000,000, and said it was just as well known when the regular appropriation bills were passed last year that the sums appropriated were inadequate to the necessities of the government as it is to-day, but they were not increased, because an opportunity was wanted to tell the dear people and the working men how economical congress had been.

The report was agreed to.

OBJECTIONS.

Allison from the committee on appropriations reported back the resolution appropriating $500,000 additional for the purchase of land for a site for the congressional library. Plumb objected to its present consideration, and it was placed on the calendar.

Allison also reported back the house joint resolution to continue appropriations temporarily.

Plumb and Edmunds objected to its present consideration.

Allison asked that the objection be withdrawn and stated if the resolution were not passed the employes whose compensation is provided for in the civil bill could not be paid for the time intervening between the last day of July and the day when the bill would receive the president's signature.

Plumb declined to withdraw his objection, being willing, he said, to leave with the house the responsibility for its tardiness in sending appropriation bills to the senate. He might particularize to show where the blame rested, but as the house tolerated an autocracy which controlled its business it became itself responsible for all delays.

The joint resolution was placed on the calendar.

Allison from the same committee reported back the house adjournment resolution with an amendment changing the time from the [illegible] of July to [illegible] the 4th of August.

REMARKS BY HOAR.

Hoar expressed his dissent to the passage of [illegible] or any other adjournment resolution until the senate had considered the bill reported by [illegible] from the judiciary committee on April [illegible] for [illegible] under national authority. He referred to massacres of the last few years in [illegible] South Carolina [illegible] and said that in every one of those cases, so far as was shown to the people by the press, the negro and the republican was the victim and the democrat and the white man the aggressor. If any of these outrages had been perpetrated upon any American citizen in Mexico or Canada, congress would not adjourn until it had made [illegible] provision to put the nation in a condition for war.

Kenna protested against the speech made by the senator from Massachusetts in the closing hours of the session. That speech would go into the Record and would go into the campaign as a bloody shirt campaign document, with frank [illegible]; it would be carried free through the mails for the purpose of agitating sectional sentiments and feelings which, so far as he was concerned, were dead and would remain so forever.

Saulsbury expressed surprise that a senator with the experience of the senator from Massachusetts would have so far departed from all legislative propriety as to inject into a discussion of an adjournment resolution the virulence of such a speech. From the exhibition by republican senators while the speech was being made many senators having left their seats, he knew that it had not the approval of those with whom the senator was politically affiliated. He exonerated that senator's party from all complicity with the grave impropriety manifested by the senator from Massachusetts, but he emphasized his condemnation and disapproval of the senator's attempt to make political capital for his party when there was no opportunity to reply to it.

Riddleberger denounced the bill.

Blair objected to the further consideration of the adjournment resolution, and it was placed on the calendar.

A VETOED PENSION BILL.

Blair then called up the report of the committee on pensions in the case of the vetoed bill giving a pension to Mary J. Nottage, and he proceeded to into the merits of the case.

Platt said that the president, who conceived that he should veto every bill which as a member of the senate or house he would feel called upon to vote against, had mistaken entirely the purpose of the veto and the circumstances under which it was intended to be exercised. It was in no sense a legislative function. The very first sentence of the constitution was: "Legislative power is conferred upon congress." If the president could veto any bill, then this declaration of the constitution was a delusion and a snare. With a majority of one-third the president could prevent legislation, and then the days of the rule of the majority were over.

The president should recollect that all legislative power was conferred upon congress and not on him.

Whitthorne, a member of the pension committee, addressed the senate in support of the veto. President Cleveland realized the great danger of special legislation, and had the wisdom and courage to grapple with it, although it came in the insidious appealing form of a pension bill.

Teller argued against the idea of any legislative power being vested in the president. The framers of the constitution had not intended to vest any legislative power in the president. Otherwise they would not have confined it exclusively to congress. The veto power was the shield and sword. It was a negative power. He likened the position of the president engaged in examining and vetoing pension bills to that of an eagle catching flies, and said the people of the United States did not expect their eagle to be so employed.

The debate was interrupted to allow the conferees of the river and harbor bill to report an agreement.

THE REPORT ADOPTED.

The conference report was agreed to without division.

The senate resumed consideration of the vetoed bill granting a pension to Mary J. Nottage, the question being on its passage notwithstanding the objection of the president. A vote was taken and resulted in yeas 26, nays 3[illegible], a party vote, except that Wilson of Maryland voted in the affirmative. The bill was not passed.

The vetoed house bill granting a pension to Jacob R[illegible] was then taken up, and Wilson of Maryland explained that the president had a letter [illegible] misapprehension having been informed that [illegible] application had been made to the pension office, while in fact an application had been made. The bill was passed over the veto by a unanimous vote, yeas 50, nays none.

On motion of Edmunds the house bill to define [illegible] in the United States [illegible] California and to create a southern [illegible] district of California was taken from [illegible] and passed. The senate [illegible]

[illegible] the committee on appropriations [illegible] appropriating $[illegible] for expenses [illegible] Mississippi river [illegible] $[illegible] for the Missouri river [illegible] had had difficult work in retaining any portion of the appropriation.

Edmunds also opposed the reduction of the appropriation. He was rather anxious to see the bill go to Vermont, but he would rather stay here until December than yield on this question, not for the purpose of forcing the house of representatives to do what it did not desire to do, but in order to pursue the course that honor, justice and public policy required, that this appropriation should be made for school purposes in Alaska. He was opposed to letting the matter drop because it was late in the session, and to postpone it until the house of representatives should be educated to appreciate the value of education.

VEST CONCURS THE REPORT.

Vest reported that the conferees had yielded to the house in the matter of providing for the salary of the superintendent of the Yellowstone National park. He took occasion to deny the statement made in the house yesterday by Holman, that he (Vest) was interested in the Yellowstone park because the present superintendent was a constituent of his. This was utterly [illegible] He had the most unmitigated contempt. It could only arise from a political [illegible] bounded by the [illegible] desire for office. He also referred to [illegible] by [illegible] that [illegible] Glover of Missouri [illegible] superintendent of the park had been [illegible] the man [illegible] of the park, and that immediately thereafter [illegible] Vest had introduced a bill which [illegible] that portion of the park [illegible] Holman [illegible] jobbery. He [illegible] denounced as utterly false the [illegible] that there was any jobbery in the matter. The bill and this statement he was corroborated by Teller, had been recommended by the [illegible] department, and he had introduced a similar bill in [illegible] before the appointment of the [illegible] superintendent. There were undoubtedly men in the senate and those who honestly believed that the national park should be abolished, but there were other men who wished its abolition for base motives. For those men and their motives he had only the same [illegible] that he had for any other [illegible] He would waste no words [illegible] this breath and strength [illegible] to defeat this conference [illegible] the Yellowstone park.

After further debate the report was adopted. [illegible]

On motion of Allison the bill was passed making an additional appropriation of $[illegible] for the [illegible] congressional library.

The senate then went into secret session. At [illegible] the doors were reopened and the senate adjourned.

HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Aug. The speaker laid before the house the president's message announcing his approval of the oleomargarine bill. It was read and referred to the committee on ways and means.

Also a message from the president transmitting papers in the Cutting case. It was referred to the committee on foreign affairs.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Willis of Kentucky presented the conference report on the river and harbor appropriation bill, and it was read at length and was agreed to—yeas 1[illegible], nays 98.

Forney of Missouri submitted a conference report upon the deficiency appropriation bill, and it was agreed to.

Morrison of Illinois submitted a conference report on the sundry civil bill. The reading of the report consumed nearly an hour. The report was agreed to—yeas [illegible], nays [illegible], and the house adjourned.

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS.

THE INTERSTATE COMMERCE BILL.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Senators Cullom, Platt and Harris, and Representatives Reagan, Crisp and [illegible] of Nebraska, conference committee on the interstate commerce bill, met this evening. The principal point of difference between the senate and the house bills were fully and freely discussed, and all the conferees manifested a disposition to make concessions and a determination to reach an agreement. It was not deemed advisable, however, in view of the important interests to be affected by the proposed legislation, to attempt to frame a modification of either measure to-night, and it was unanimously agreed that the committee should meet in Washington a week before the next session begins and make such modifications in the pending bills as may be agreed upon. The whole subject is before the conference committee, and both Senator Cullom and Judge Reagan are confident that an agreement will be reached and a satisfactory measure passed next session.

THE SURPLUS RESOLUTION.

WASHINGTON, Aug. —The conferees on the Morrison surplus resolution have reached an agreement. The house conferees insisted on the [illegible] of the paragraph providing for the [illegible] that point the [illegible] conceded the remaining amendment [illegible] by the senate but insisted on a change in the phraseology so as to confer upon the president and not the secretary of the treasury power to postpone instead of suspend calls.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The cabinet was in session about three hours to-day arranging the affairs of the departments in anticipation of a speedy adjournment of congress. The Cutting and Arre[illegible] cases were also considered.

There is no prospect that any of the appropriation bills will be sent to the president to-night.

Several reports from the senate committee on [illegible] and [illegible] roads upon nominations referred to that committee have been made public. They are devoted entirely to vindications of the records of suspended predecessors of nominees.

THE SUNDRY CIVIL BILL.

WASHINGTON, Aug. —The sundry civil bill [illegible] the main obstacle to [illegible] adjournment of congress [illegible] agreed on by the conference committees. The [illegible] the senate remain substantially as it passed the senate, while the provision for the protection and improvement of Yellowstone park is the same as that made in the original house bill.

THE FORFEITURE BILL DEAD.

WASHINGTON, Aug. The conferees upon the Northern Pacific forfeiture bill and the bill to repeal the pre-emption and timber culture laws met this [illegible] and after a short conference adjourned, having failed to agree with regard to the points at issue in either bill. It is not expected that another conference will be held.

NOMINATIONS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—To be receiver of public moneys, Wm. J. McGuire at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho; Alden Word, Susanville, Cal.; Frank J. Mott, to be register of the land office at Denver. J. [illegible] to be agent for the Indians at the Omaha and Winnebago reservation in Nebraska.

THE DEFICIENCY BILL.

WASHINGTON, Aug. —Among the items stricken from the deficiency bill as agreed to in the conference is the senate provision for payment for government transportation on [illegible] railroads.

HEIDELBERG'S CELEBRATION.

The 500th Anniversary of the Foundation of the University.

HEIDELBERG, Aug. 3.—Visiting deputation which are here to participate in the celebration of the 500th anniversary of the foundation of Heidelberg university gathered in Festhalle last night and listened to an address of welcome by the burgomaster on behalf of the city. There were 500 persons present. Cheers were given for the emperor and Grand Duke of Baden. The Choral union sang the jubilee swan song, the words of which were written by Scheffel, and the music by [illegible], [illegible] who directed the singing. A hymn by the poet Wolff was also rendered.

Deputies representing foreign universities held a meeting and elected M. Zoller president of the French institute to act as general spokesman for the [illegible] during the festivities.

ADDRESS OF THE CROWN PRINCE.

Crown Prince Frederick William opened the celebration last night. In his address to the assembled present and former members of the great institution the prince congratulated them upon their possession of a share in the glorious record of Heidelberg university. He said it had maintained through many vicissitudes its foremost position in securing religious liberty and the light of scientific inquiry which Heidelberg [illegible] to [illegible] with every [illegible] of the world. The university also aided in the work of forming faith in the principle of national unity which was at present Germany's safeguard and strength. Now that this unity had been realized [illegible] the prince, the maintenance of the [illegible] of our race call for the exercise of greater [illegible] intellectual and spiritual discipline in order to [illegible] the happy development of [illegible] spirit of the national life of the Germans.

The address of the crown prince was received with great enthusiasm.

Eleven Thousand Veterans Take Part in the Parade.

A GREAT DAY FOR SAN FRANCISCO.

The Wildest Enthusiasm Shown along the Line of March—The Exercises in the Evening—Gen. Sherman's Remarks.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. —Since early this morning the streets of the city have been thronged with men, women and children eager to secure a good place to see the grand parade of the Grand Army of the Republic, which is timed to start from Van Ness avenue at 10:30. As early as 9 o'clock both sides of all the streets along which the procession is to pass were filled with eager, happy crowds, ready to extend to the veterans the most joyous welcome. On Montgomery and Market streets carpenters are busy erecting stands for those who are willing to get good places and pay for them, while the windows of the buildings are filled with ladies and children, to whom the places of honor have been conceded. Everything at this hour indicates that the affair will be one of the grandest and most enthusiastic ever witnessed in San Francisco. The weather is cool and clear.

Owing to the large number of posts and the number of men participating in the parade the procession did not get started until 11 o'clock. The serried ranks of men and their excellent marching as they passed down Van Ness avenue to [illegible] called the wildest cheering and enthusiasm from the spectators who lined the street and filled the windows of the buildings.

THE PROCESSION.

The first to start in the march was a platoon of police under Chief Crowley. These were followed by a detachment of United States troops, comprising three companies of infantry and three batteries of artillery. Then came the National Guard of California, under command of Major General Turnbull. Immediately following the last of the National Guard and between them and the first detachment of the G. A. R. was a wagon laden with flowers, which were heaped high and which were strewn by little girls along the road to be trodden by the Union defenders. This beautiful allegory was greeted everywhere along the line by joyous shouts and joyous cries of admiration and approval.

The department of California was first in the line of march of the G. A. R. delegations. The San Francisco post were in the van, and were followed in close order by delegations from Los Angeles, San Diego, San Bernardino, Stockton and Tulare. The delegation from Tulare bore a distinguishing mark in the shape of a standard, the staff of which was composed of stalks of wheat, topped with the United States flag, bearing in large letters, "Tulare County."

After the department of California came a number of eastern delegations. Conspicuous among these was a delegation from New York with its forty battle-worn and bullet-rent flags, which hung in tatters from their staffs and which were reverently saluted by the spectators and comrades marching comrades with raised hats, and then loudly and continuously cheered.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

Commander-in-Chief Burdette, officers of the G. A. R., Gens. Sherman and Logan, who occupied carriages in the parade, were picked out by the crowds along the route of parade for marks of vociferous welcome, and the cheers which poured forth for them continued to follow them like a wave.

Nearly all the delegations had some conspicuous and interesting feature which called out the plaudits of the spectators. Among these were two drummer girls attached to one of the California visiting delegations. Another was a young girl in the costume of the "Daughter of the Regiment." The most numerous, however, were handsomely equipped drum corps which accompanied nearly all the visiting delegations, and whose bright colored regimentals served to relieve the monotony of the long line of "Boys in Blue."

Many remarkable circumstances were noted by the lookers-on, of which the most commented upon was the large number of gray haired veterans who tramped along in line with as proud and elastic a step as the youngest member of the drum corps.

THE ROUTE.

The line of march extended as follows: South on Van Ness avenue to Jackson, from Jackson to Market, east on Market to Kearny, north on Kearny to Montgomery avenue, thence into Montgomery street, south to Market, thence to Third, along Third to Mission, where the commands were dismissed.

The review by G. A. R. officers, Gov. Stoneman, Mayor Bartlett and distinguished persons took [illegible] at the intersection of [illegible] and [illegible] Gen. Sherman's appearance with the [illegible] Marching through Georgia.

The head of the procession passed the associated press office, corner Pine and Montgomery streets at 1:15 P. M., and took two hours and seven minutes in passing.

Delegations from the Southern states met with even greater applause than those from the Northern states, and every one appeared in the happiest mood.

Close estimates place the number in line at 11,000, and that the procession was viewed by 350,000 people, including visitors. The demand for seats all along the line of parade became so great that at some points $5 were asked for them by those who had erected stands, and in some few cases this sum was paid.

The enthusiasm throughout was unbounded, and the general verdict is that it is the greatest day San Francisco has ever seen.

A GREAT DAY.

Never before have so many people been seen on San Francisco's streets as were to-day. The greater number of them were, of course, visitors from interior California towns and other Pacific coast states, but among them could be discerned many of the so-called Eastern type, and all of whom had come to see the members of the Grand Army parade. From start to finish the march was a triumphant one. Almost the cheers that were so heartily given to the various delegations as they passed by, it was remarked that those from the Southern states, though numerically small, met with even greater applause than did those from the Northern ones, due perhaps to a feeling of sympathy that the difficulties they had to encounter during the war were even greater than those of the Northern soldiers.

As the procession was moving up Market street the carriage in which Gen. Sherman was sitting was suddenly attacked by six handsomely dressed [illegible] ladies armed with baskets of flowers, who with ringing cheers and laughter opened fire on the general, pelting him with roses. The general [illegible] raised his hat, and amid the cheers of the spectators bowed repeatedly in acknowledging [illegible] of his defeat.

A TEMPORARY FAMINE.

An unexpected result of the procession, and which to many was very serious, was the rush to restaurants immediately the parade was over. Three hundred thousand people, including the visitors, had been standing from 9 o'clock to 1 steady minutes [illegible] without anything to eat. As soon as [illegible] it is all over the famished beings rushed to the restaurants, and so great was the crush that within five minutes proprietors had to lock their doors or it would have been impossible for the waiters to serve those who had secured places. Several cases of women having fainted from hunger and fatigue are reported. Those who had to wait until the first rush was over made a descent on bakeries and fruit stands and cleaned up everything in sight. To make matters worse most of the large restaurants although they had laid in large extra supplies ran out of both bread and meat, and as the markets were closed it was found impossible to replenish the larders. All sorts of devices had to be resorted to, with such success that every one managed to get something. As the day was delightfully cool no accidents from heat are reported.

WASHINGTON'S EXHIBIT.

The Washington territory exhibit on Montgomery street composed of exhibits from Tacoma and the Walla Walla country is attracting marked attention among visitors, and all express surprise that a country so far north should be so productive in all that goes to make it most prosperous. The exhibit has been arranged and is in the charge of Col. Frank Parker, of Walla Walla.

IN THE EVENING.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—The streets from the [illegible] hotel to the Mechanics' pavilion were crowded to-night to witness the parade from the [illegible] to the latter [illegible] which carried [illegible]

[illegible]

we found what was necessary in war. California said to you one year ago, 'If you will come here we will show you California's hospitality, the beautiful mountains and its other magnificent scenes, and its luscious fruits.' We found this too tempting to resist, and we came and were not disappointed." Turning to the vast audience he concluded by thanking the ladies and gentlemen of California for their unbounded hospitality.

SPECIAL NOTES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—The Oregon headquarters continues to be a resort of great attraction. Four hundred G. A. R. members registered there to-day, but this comprises only a small portion of the visitors. Watkins has placed a series of Oregon and Washington territory photo scenes at the headquarters of Oregon, which makes an interesting addition to its exhibit.

Mrs. George W. Pittock returned here to-day from Los Angeles with her health much improved.

Some of the Oregon and Washington territory delegates return home on Friday's steamer.

H. B. Northup and [illegible] Pilkington came here on the overland train yesterday.

A. R. [illegible] Wm. Jordan and party leave for Oregon about Saturday.

It is reported that a large party of [illegible] will arrive in Oregon during the fall from Ohio. [illegible] father who came from Ohio [illegible] for Oregon Friday.

[illegible] of Portland is here en route to [illegible] Angeles, where he intends to settle.

Edwin Stevens is quite a favorite here at the Tivoli opera house.

The steamship company reports that only beds on the floor of its vessels will be available for several trips north.

The sixth division of the parade to-day was under the immediate command of [illegible], department commander of Oregon; J. W. Christopher, H. C. Allen and [illegible] aids. Following the Excelsior (colored) band came the department of Oregon, headed by its G. A. R. drum corps.

One of the features of the Oregon department was a badge worn by most of the officers, upon which was fixed the foot of a duck, on the other side of which was inscribed "Oregon Webfoot." They also carried a beautiful silk banner upon which was inscribed in gold: "Presented by the Wives of Comrades, May 4, 1886."

The department of Washington territory, under command of Charles M. Holton and M. C. Blaine, came next in line and consisted of sixty five men.

SENATORIAL ELECTION.

A. P. Williams, of San Francisco, Chosen by the California Legislature.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 3.—Both houses of the legislature met at 11 o'clock this morning and immediately proceeded to elect a United States senator to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator John F. Miller, which vacancy since Miller's death has been filled by George Hearst, appointed by Gov. Stoneman. A. P. Williams, chairman of the republican state central committee, who was nominated by the republican caucus a few hours before, was nominated and received a majority of the votes of both houses. The vote on joint ballot stood: Williams 70, Hearst 24.

MONTANA.

THE DECLINE IN SILVER CAUSING HARD TIMES.

BUTTE, Aug. 3.—Grave alarm exists throughout the mining districts of Montana over the rapid decline of silver. The Inter Mountain estimates that 50,000 people in the territory are dependent on the mining industry and cognate enterprises, including merchants, farmers and mechanics. The recent depreciation of ten cents per ounce in silver represents the profits of mining companies which will have to close down unless a reaction occurs. Lead and copper mines in which silver is an important by-product are also seriously crippled. The Glendale works, employing 1000 men, will shut down on the 15th. The Alice, Moulton, Lexington and Wyckes works and many other great enterprises which for years have paid heavy dividends and employ thousands of men cannot run if the present depression in the silver market continues. Great paralysis of business will result unless a change speedily occurs.

Butte is a substantial city of 22,000 people, entirely dependent upon mining, 5000 miners being employed. The copper smelters will continue in operation but with decreased profits. The silver mills of Montana represent an investment of $200,000, and mining machinery as much more. The silver product of the territory the current year estimated at $12,000,000 will be suddenly cut short and fully 12,000 miners will be thrown out of employment. The people are still brave and hopeful, but indignant at the action of congress and the administration.

Reports of other mineral states and territories to the Inter Mountain are to the same effect, and directly affect the personal interests of a million Western people.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

THE SHOSHONES DEFEAT THE SEATTLES.

SEATTLE, Aug. The game between the Shoshones and Reds this afternoon was one of the [illegible] in the city. The game was closely contested, almost entirely a pitcher and catcher game. The Shoshones utterly failed to hit Dickey, making only one base hit. They won the game, however, through a number of bad fielding errors by the Reds in the sixth inning. Following is the score:

SUDDEN DEATH.

PORT TOWNSEND, August 3.—Louis Young, a native of Belgium, aged about 3[illegible], dropped dead on the bark Henry Buck last night off Dungeness. The cause was cerebral apoplexy. The bark was bound to Mexico, but the captain returned to this port and put the body ashore. It was taken charge of by the seamen's union and buried, $[illegible] being given towards the funeral expenses by shipmates.

SMALL FIRE AT DAYTON.

DAYTON, Aug. 3.—Lang Shang's wash house and an empty building adjoining were totally destroyed by fire last night about 9:30. Loss about $800. No insurance. By great effort the flour mill was saved.

PORTLAND WEDNESDAY AUG 4, 1886

TIME THE GREAT HEALER

The Society of the Army of the Potomac closes its exercises to-day at San Francisco with a grand banquet These army reunions are a curious anomaly in our American [illegible] They are about the only occasions when men of both parties, of all religions [illegible] no matter what war [illegible] they wage against each other in politics, in the business of life, consent to sit [illegible] in reverence to the [illegible] patriotic memories, where [illegible] and bury for the moment [illegible] giving for [illegible] from the bubble [illegible] sense The [illegible] our public [illegible] burning memory [illegible] faded, [illegible] the tender [illegible] avenger and [illegible] The first Union blood was spilled April [illegible] in Baltimore, by the mob that attacked [illegible] Massachusetts [illegible] way through the city [illegible] killed and wounded The killing of these Massachusetts soldiers caused a [illegible] ment for the moment that the news of the slaughter at Gettysburg and the Wilderness And yet last year the Army of the Potomac met in Baltimore, the [illegible] state that sent thousands of her sons into the Confederate army, and Baltimore put on her best dress to welcome the survivors of the great Union army whose first battalion her mob tried to murder Not quite a quarter of a century had elapsed since that day of rage and fear and Baltimore's Confederate children, who used to sing the finest lyric song of the war, "My Maryland," appealing to the South to

> Avenge the patriotic gore
> That wet the streets of Baltimore

found themselves feasting and fraternizing with the survivors of that very Army of the Potomac whose bayonets pinned Baltimore to the Union We see Northern and Southern soldiers fraternizing more and more every year, with no feeling of rivalship or animosity because of the terrible past. All that resentment seems to have been succeeded by a feeling of amiable emulation to see which side can add most to the authentic historical records of the great conflict. All this is well, so that it be sincere, since it is desirable that the growing generation does not imitate the pig-headed Orangemen who perpetuate the memory of a battle of race and religious prejudice by parading with offensive music and insignia on the anniversary of the battle of the Boyne

There is no stronger proof of the sound, practical, political good sense to which our people are educated under our free institutions than the fact that we do not long nurse purely sentimental grievances It has only taken twenty years to accomplish in time [illegible] reasonable [illegible] very much of the sectional soreness and resentment consequent upon our great civil war Grant tells how a congressional delegation, headed by Senator Wilson of Massachusetts, once waited upon him and proposed that a great picture of the surrender at Appomattox be painted at the expense of the nation for [illegible] Grant killed the project by saying he never would accept a picture delineating the [illegible] over the other, and Sumner [illegible] years afterward [illegible] to the same conclusion [illegible] tion expunging the [illegible] battles of the civil war from the regimental flags of the regular army [illegible] bidding for the [illegible] ernor of Georgia [illegible]

I acknowledge [illegible] tion of the [illegible] effort [illegible] the [illegible] the names of the battles [illegible] estranged and embittered [illegible] scribe neither to its [illegible] dissent from the opinion [illegible] either essential to the [illegible] or just to the intrepid armies of the Union The one thing essential to the manhood and self respect, and therefore [illegible] to the patriotism of the people is that exact historic justice shall be meted to each army and [illegible] encomiums of Southern heroism is implied [illegible] of Northern prowess

The South since it lost its slaves has become somewhat of a sharp Yankee and [illegible] while the Southern woman, as a rule, has never got over her mad fit, the Southern man of intelligence is convinced it didn't pay to fight in the start, and it certainly don't pay for either side to bite their thumbs at each other to the third and fourth generation The South is more of a bright, sensible man of business than ever before. Both sides have had their fill of fight, and the result is that the North and the South have come quickly to that mood which makes it easy and natural for us always to "speak when we pass by" The English Jacobite was nearly sixty years getting reconciled to the expulsion of the Stuarts, but this was because he had a passionate loyalty for the personal rights of kings, for a man rather than for a principle of public weal but under free institutions, while we cherish the popular rights of all, we do not care about peculiar personal rights of any body We are for principles, not men and so we do not hold out long in our [illegible] We would rather trade than fight, and [illegible] not likely to fight at all unless we find it impossible to secure the peace, order and [illegible] necessary to the life of trade [illegible] We are not disposed to boycott any [illegible] business so long as [illegible] to keep the peace that is necessary [illegible] safety of business between the sections

The fight [illegible] folly, when [illegible] supremacy will [illegible] in botting up [illegible] Calhoun, might [illegible] rights In [illegible] Jackson and the [illegible] powers of [illegible] tled him up [illegible] is occasionally [illegible] to be let on, [illegible] tuned cares [illegible] that Lincoln [illegible] of Grant [illegible] feeling [illegible] fesses [illegible] he uttered [illegible] tried to [illegible] might [illegible] now, for he is glad to-day that he is not "a man without a country," no matter what he thought and felt on the subject when brave men were dying daily to perpetuate a country that he then thought wasn't worth burning a grain of powder to preserve [illegible] got religion at last like many other [illegible] question, and begins [illegible] patriotism before [illegible] dying words of Grant [illegible] said

I feel that we are on the eve of [illegible] there is to be great harmony between [illegible] and Confederate I cannot stay [illegible] ness to the [illegible] it within [illegible] kind feeling expressed [illegible] was supposed that each day would prove my last seemed to me the beginning of the answer to "Let us have peace."

In the report of the bureau of animal industry, connected with the department of agriculture at Washington, there appears a comparative statement of much interest, showing the number of animals and acres of grazing lands in some of the principal grazing regions of the country In Colorado for example, there is reported a grazing area of [illegible] acres It requires on an average [illegible] acres for each animal and in Colorado at the date of the report there were 1,420,988, which on the basis stated could not be supported on this range by several thousand The conditions in Wyoming are very similar In that territory there is a grazing area [illegible] acres, cattle, 1,515,763, acres necessary per head, 32. There is more room in [illegible] the grazing there being 58,124,000 [illegible] acres required per head, [illegible] is made out of information [illegible] and there [illegible] that vendin that territory they are in danger of overstocking the ranges Only the eastern portions of Oregon and Washington territory can properly be included under the title of grazing country The number of cattle therein has never yet equaled the proportion in Colorado, Wyoming or Montana Eastern Oregon contains about 60,000 square miles, or 38,400,000 acres, two thirds of which may be called grazing country Upon the ratio calculated for Montana, Eastern Oregon would support about 1,000,000 cattle, and Eastern Washington nearly as many

THE SATANIC PRESS

A Satanic press is a newspaper that denies there is any difference between a pulpit and a peanut stand, between the function of preacher and [illegible], and the attitude and moral responsibility of the itinerant quack, who sells cheap [illegible] rums, sings flash songs and expectorates coarse stories between exiles. It is the reviler of all that is honored or gracious in human life It is vulgar and coarse in its instinct its printed word is never helpful or elevating it is a corner gossip printing anonymous scandal ribaldry, and covert or open obscenity according to its commercial judgment whether there is a safe market for it within the law It gives itself no concern about principles is always silent (for its silence can be secured) when powerful corporations or individuals betray public trusts, or prostitute themselves for pelf It never suspects candidates for office to any fearless analysis of their capacity or worth Its concern is not with the defence of principle that underlie the public weal, but it is concerned chiefly with the dissemination of personalities It is the turkey buzzard, the carrion fly and the polecat in its public function not a surly mastiff that is mute and inoffensive until burglars seek to break in and steal. It levies blackmail, directly or indirectly, on the timid the weak and the unfortunate It sometimes gets rich on the wages of its sin, just as outcasts met [illegible] succeed in coining infamy into purple, fine linen and filthy lucre The Satanic press sometimes fastens transiently, like a barnacle, to good men and noble causes, but, barnacle like it is sure to make the best ship unseaworthy, unless it be promptly scraped off and a clean keel secured The satanic press has many readers, because those who do not affect exceed those who do, but its following is the uncomplimentary crowd of listeners who always hang on the lips of scandal mongers and yet while malignant gossips always have a larger constituency than men of wise, discreet speech and useful action, this is not because it has any character but because of its very lack of character The satanic press is constructive of nothing but falsehood, it is destructive of everything that is not disreputable It crawls like a snake, on its belly, over whatsoever men or things are lovely, honest or of good report, and then pointing to its own slimy track imputes the smutch it has placed on his scutcheon to the hand of the man who is stainless, and [illegible] it capers like a mad bull in a china shop, soiling everything it omits to shiver These are salient features of the satanic press that has at least one representative in every considerable town of this nation The life of the satanic press does not lie altogether in the support of those who are bound to it by the cohesive attraction of depravity Men of decent [illegible] sometimes treat the [illegible] of the satanic press in the spirit of mean and truckling affability they are as cordial in their welcome, nay, often more bland and [illegible] to journalistic shysters who play Peeping Tom, and social scavengers every [illegible] they are to newspapers that honor [illegible] to consider that a rag picker's book [illegible] whitewash brush are the noblest implements of their calling Why should decent men [illegible] deferential [illegible] their [illegible] as they deep so [illegible] who go about prodding every [illegible] ash barrel searching right and left for [illegible] linen, persuading one man by fulsome [illegible] and another by impending [illegible] to support their enterprise It is largely [illegible] the moral cowardice and moral indifference of reputable and decent men, who lack the moral courage to defy defamation that the satanic press leans for public toleration, recognition and secret support We impute no sincere sympathy or admiration to this large class of men, who know better, for this sort of journalism nevertheless they suffer but just retribution for their weakness and cowardice when the satanic journalist soils them by his contact, or in his capacity of hired mercenary, turns and rends those who carelessly pitch the pearl of their own self respect within reach of such swine Let no man who, in his heart, [illegible] a satanic paper consent to support it on the contemptible and cowardly plea that "I'd rather take it than have him abuse me," or on the worse plea that "I want to see what is the latest rot and ribaldry of the hour" That is the kind of weakness that makes the satanic press immortal

WASHINGTON D C Aug 3

The river and harbor bill will now pass Canals [illegible] by conference committee—others [illegible] the senate bill Oregon all right

BINGER HERMANN

This is good news indeed and all the better for being unexpected It will be remembered that the senate added to the bill a proposition to buy several canals in the Eastern states, involving the expenditure of some millions of dollars, and this is meant by the reference in Mr Hermann's dispatch to canals Assuming Mr Hermann to be correct in his judgment respecting the prospects of the bill it is by no means certain that it will become a law, since after its passage it must run the gauntlet of the White house

According to the San Antonio (Texas) Express, the great state of Texas is ready for the fray with Mexico With the first gun fired on the Rio Grande, it says, 50,000 patriotic citizens of that state will be ready at a moment's notice to rush to the field—as sutlers!

The Mexican affair, which has been looked upon as trifling, may turn out a very serious matter Our government should stand no nonsense It looks as if Mexico really intended to be offensive

THE NEW TELEGRAPH

The Arrangement with the Canadian Line—Construction on the Pacific Coast.

New York Herald July 28

The Western Union has long enjoyed exclusive control of the telegraph lines in Canada [illegible] of all communication between the United States and the Dominion It has also been the [illegible] having complete connection between the [illegible] the Pacific Coast Both these exclusive privileges are about to vanish through the [illegible] the service of the Commercial Cable company its feeder the Postal Telegraph Cable company These two companies have just [illegible] tracts with the Canadian Pacific company which will result in important extensions of telegraph facilities and give [illegible] competition a vast territory which has heretofore been under the control of a monopoly

THE POSTAL TO THE FORE

The Postal Telegraph property which was constructed in part by the issue of mortgage bonds has during the past year been operated by Messrs A B Chandler and Henry Risner as receivers The property has just been reorganized [illegible] name of the Postal Telegraph Cable company at [illegible] 000,000 [illegible] Mr Chandler is president of the new company [illegible] Its wires are [illegible] steel and copper [illegible] between the exchange of New York [illegible] the [illegible] opinion of [illegible] and correctness The property of the [illegible] has been operated in connection with the Postal [illegible] President Chandler [illegible] the land service of [illegible] Cable company

The Canadian Pacific railway company has [illegible] substantial telegraph lines [illegible] gauge wires across the continent through [illegible] territory, extending from Quebec and Montreal to British Columbia a distance of 3,000 miles A alliance in the shape of a contract for the exclusive exchange of traffic has [illegible] between the Canadian Pacific company on the one side and the Postal Telegraph Cable company the Commercial Cable company [illegible] on the Pacific coast all of them interested in all of the three companies named The result of this contract will be that by Christmas Day next there will be a competing line of telegraph between New York and the principal [illegible] and between New York and San Francisco and all important points on the [illegible] coast [illegible] under the contract is to work its own line but the whole system will [illegible] operated as one The Canadian Pacific has secured the services of Charles [illegible] as general manager He [illegible] one of the ablest telegraph managers [illegible]

COMPLETING THE CHAIN

To complete the system the Postal Telegraph Cable company has begun the construction of a line from New York to the Canadian border near [illegible] N Y The Canadian Pacific is building an extension to meet it from Montreal This will be completed September 1 and will give a direct connection between New York and the principal cities of Canada The Canadian Pacific lines are [illegible] to be extended at once from Montreal to St Johns Halifax and other points in the British maritime provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick Another important connection is to be built by September 1 from the terminus of the postal [illegible] Chicago to St Paul Minneapolis and [illegible] to connect with the Canadian Pacific at St [illegible] a little later

Work will be begun immediately to extend the Canadian Pacific lines to the terminus of the Canadian Pacific railway in British Columbia to Portland Or San Francisco and Sacramento This will put the Commercial Cable company in direct connection with all points in the dominion of Canada and with the Pacific coast Interested parties have also in contemplation the scheme of laying an ocean cable from the Pacific coast to China

A SERIOUS BLOW TO WESTERN UNION

This new telegraphic extension will be a serious blow to the Western Union for the reason that that company has a long lease of the Great Northwestern telegraph company of Canada under which the Western Union guarantees 8 per cent on a larger issue of stock and [illegible] per cent on another issue The Northwestern is a company formed like the Manhattan Elevated railway company—to operate the Montreal and the Dominion companies in the first of which the Western Union is responsible for [illegible] per cent dividends and on the latter [illegible] per cent Of course the Western Union in binding itself to pay such high rates supposed that it had an unassailable monopoly of telegraphic communication in Canada President Chandler of the Postal company said yesterday in answer to a Herald reporter's questions that it was almost certain that the Western Union would have to meet a deficit now the monopoly is broken The Northwestern company could earn 8 per cent while it had the exclusive control of their business but with a competing company able to serve the public just as well and just as cheaply the Northwestern would not be able to earn its very high fixed charges

As to the service between New York and the Pacific coast which has also been a monopoly of the Western Union ever since the Atlantic & Pacific telegraph company was merged in the Western Union [illegible] it will also be effectually broken down by the new arrangement Mr Chandler said [illegible] over the Canadian Pacific wires messages can be sent just as quickly if not more rapidly than over the Western Union connections

AN OREGON PUZZLE

New York World Dem July [illegible]

On the 7th day of last June the democracy of Oregon captured the state electing their governor by over 6,000 majority in a state that gave Blaine 2100 majority Of course the democrats of Oregon were very jubilant over the grand result and we learn from that fact that in the exuberance of his feelings the chairman of the democratic state committee sent a telegram to President Cleveland apprising him of the grand news and offering congratulations It has leaked out that no [illegible] never was [illegible] of the dispatch by the [illegible]

On the 2d day of last June a Chinaman in Philadelphia sent the president a letter accompanied by a very fan and card case The president [illegible] and answered this letter saying [illegible] and the words [illegible] your letter may be taken as proof that [illegible] interested in the affairs of the country in [illegible] have made your home The Oregon democrats being interested in the affairs of the country to some extent sent to the president a sovereign state wrested after a hard struggle from the republicans but they received no recognition A Chinaman sent to the president a fan and a card [illegible] and was commended

The Oregon democrats are now puzzling their brains over the question as to whether in the president's estimation a democratic victory is of as much value as a fan and card-case and as to whether they are on a par with a Philadelphia Chinaman

But the Oregon democrats should understand that the president [illegible] instructions to all [illegible] the administration [illegible] to keep [illegible] of politics [illegible] abstention [illegible] victory

His Last Letter

The letter written by Grant just three weeks before his death to Dr Douglass contained the following [illegible]

As I [illegible] I am thankful for the providential extension of my time to enable me to continue my work I am further thankful and in a much greater degree thankful because it has enabled me to see for myself the happy harmony which has so suddenly sprung up between those engaged but a few short years ago in deadly conflict It has been an inestimable blessing to me to hear the kind expressions towards me in person from all parts of our country from people of all nationalities of all religions and of no religion of Confederates and of national troops alike of soldiers organizations of mechanical scientific religious and other societies embracing almost every citizen in the land They have brought joy to my heart If they have not effected a cure So to you and your colleagues I acknowledge my indebtedness for having brought me through the valley of the shadow of death to enable me to witness these things

Does Gold Grow?

Joaquin Miller in Chicago Times

Years ago I wrote and published in a London magazine an article in which I undertook to prove that gold grows—grows the same as grain or potatoes or anything else I reckon I did my work crudely not knowing anything about chemistry or even the ordinary terms of expression in such matters and so my earnest and entirely correct sketch was torn all to pieces and laughed to scorn Well I have at last found positive proof of my general statement right here in the mountains by the Pacific sea Briefly and simply I have found a piece of petrified wood with a little vein or thread of gold in it. How did that gold get into this piece of wood? Was it placed there by the finger of God on the morning of creation as men have claimed was the case with the gold found in the veins of the mountains? Nonsense! Gold grows! Certain conditions of the air or certain combinations of earth and air and water and whatever chemicals may be required and then a rock a piece of quartz [illegible] to grow [illegible]

RESPECTING THE FISHING LAW.—The ... fishermen have signed an agreement that they will not buy or sell during the months of August and September and that they will aid in bringing to justice all who ... the law by catching or selling salmon during that time. The reason for this action is that it is reported that fishermen on the Columbia have been inclined to violate the law by keeping on fishing during the prohibited months, the fact that the catch has been light this season and the month of April been put in at ... instead ... the pack might have been as large as that of last year. Fishermen generally have paid ... attention to the law prohibiting them from fishing on Sundays and they have it seems come to the conclusion that there is no need of paying any attention to the law at all. District Attorney McGinn will prosecute all cases of infringement of the law regarding salmon brought to his notice and as the fishmongers here have determined to stand to ... necessary measure for the protection of their interests in the future fishing ... will probably be put a stop to. The law in Washington territory ... and as it is in this state ... is properly enforced violators will find that they had better hang up their nets

THE WATER PROBLEM.—It is reported that the Portland water company have submitted to the water commission two propositions viz: Either to sell out the water works entire for $600,000 or to ... upon a valuation of the water works on the following basis: The commission to select one man and the company another each to be subject to approval by the other and they two to select a third making a special board of arbitration of three which shall fix the value of the works but ... not to exceed $... It is ... that these alternative propositions have recently been submitted to the ... The propositions will probably receive consideration but ... it is impossible to conjecture what the commission will do

LATER.—It is understood that after considerable discussion the committee agreed by a vote of 3 to 2 Johnson, Loewenberg and Fleischner voting nay that an offer of $460,000 be made the water company for their property and that the company be allowed eight days in which to make up their minds as to accepting the offer. It was also moved that the executive committee be authorized to place $90,000 of the bonds on the market to be sold for not less than par to defray expenses already incurred by the commission

IN JAIL FOR FORGERY.—A young fellow named Charles Johnson was arrested yesterday by Constable Kelly of East Portland on a charge of forgery and on examination before a justice of the peace was held to answer before the grand jury. Johnson was taken to the county jail for safe keeping and here a reporter of THE OREGONIAN interviewed him. He said he came from Washington county Kansas several weeks ago is ... years of age and his parents are dead. On his arrival here he got a job having for J P Kennedy and worked for him three weeks. From there he went to Pleasant Home and engaged with Smith & McKinnon the sawmill men. Here he remained three days and a half. In regard to the forgery Johnson says he got a note signed by Robert Smith one of the mill men for $1... and cashed it with Bennett Elliott. It seems that $11.70 was obtained on the note from Mr Elliott and this Johnson explains away by saying this amount was procured after the paper left his hands. His story don't chime very well but he nevertheless asserts himself of being confident of making the grand jury believe that his version of the case is the only correct one. He fails to explain how the same note was cashed twice

EXCHANGING TERMINAL PROPERTY.—Judge Deady yesterday made an order allowing P Koehler, receiver of the O & C railroad to exchange some lands with the North Pacific terminal company. It appears that in November 1884 the O & C R R Co had arranged with the terminal company for an exchange of property owned by both parties at East Portland for the purpose of straightening and rounding off the certain tract of land belonging to the two corporations and to be used by them as their respective depot grounds. The land in question is that portion of the Hepple tract lying west of Second st. and fractional block 3 in Wheeler's addition. The O & C R R Co own block 2 and fractional blocks 1 ... and ... and block ... in Wheeler's addition while the terminal company own the remainder of the tract. The exchange is for their mutual convenience. The board of directors of the O & C authorized the exchange but it had not been effected when Mr Koehler was appointed receiver. Since that time the terminal company has at various times requested the receiver to have the arrangement carried out but he did not feel at liberty to act ... he applied to the court and was authorized to make the exchange

VISITING RAILROADERS.—Col T E Hogg president of the Oregon Pacific arrived here Monday from New York with a party of prominent railroad men in a special Pullman car. Among the party are John I Blair and Percy R Pyne prominently identified with the Chicago & Northwestern railway. They went through to Tacoma returning here yesterday. They chartered the steamer Salem, and left at 10 o'clock last night for Astoria. Thursday they go to Corvallis, thence to Yaquina bay and then out south to Ashland and to the O & C terminus. They will spend about two weeks in Oregon. An OREGONIAN man corralled Col Hogg for a few minutes just before the Salem started but found him reticent. He said the Oregon Pacific would go ahead steadily with the enterprises in hand, that the company had now afloat 10,000 tons of steel rails, that a like quantity would be loaded between now and February 1 and a third 10,000 tons between February 1 and May 1. He stated further that he had let contracts for faster steamships between Yaquina bay and San Francisco. The visit of the party with Col Hogg seems to ... the general ... held in Oregon that the Chicago & Northwestern is backing up the Yaquina bay road

NARROW GAUGE ITEMS.—Work will soon be commenced on the narrow gauge bridges across the north and south forks of the Santiam. The contractors the Pacific Bridge company have their pile drivers on the ground and are now making arrangements for securing timber here as the mill is in that section do not cut timber long enough. The contract calls for the completion of the bridges in about sixty days but trains will be crossed on the false work in about fifteen days from the time work is commenced. The bridge on the north fork will have three spans the longest being 160 feet. The river which was only ... feet wide when the bridge was first built there is now 1000 feet wide and is of course much shallower. F N Dolan formerly of the O R & N Co. has lately been appointed station agent at West Scio where there has been no agent for four years. In conjunction with Mr Hardman, who is in charge of the warehouse there he is distributing grain sacks among the farmers and making arrangements for shipping their grain as soon as the road is opened. A portion of the first cargo of rails for the narrow gauge extension will arrive on the incoming steamer and more will arrive by succeeding steamer

INVESTIGATING DAMAGES TO CHINESE.—Yesterday there arrived here from Olympia the Chinese vice consul Gen Chin, Bing of San Francisco and Yow Jan the secretary of the Chinese legation at Washington. They were accompanied by H J Burns deputy United States marshal of California who acted as escort. Mr Burns is registered at the St Charles. He states that the dignitaries were told at Seattle that the Tacoma people would not permit a Chinaman to land in that town but no indignities were offered to the visitors. Their mission is to take testimony as to the value of property belonging to Chinese which was destroyed by ... this last winter. They will remain here about a week and then proceed to Idaho

IMMIGRATION BOARD.—Yesterday there was a meeting of the state board of immigration at the rooms. There were present President C H Dodd Wm LaDue, H W Corbett and Secretary Carlisle, absent H B Miller and Mr Rothchild. After hearing a portion of the secretary's monthly report auditing various bills and transacting some general business the meeting adjourned until to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. Gov Moody will be present and attend the meeting to-day

BACK FROM A VACATION.—Judge L B Stearns yesterday returned from a trip to the head waters of the Coquille river, where he has been for the past two weeks camping out fishing, hunting and together with a party of congenial companions and sportsmen, enjoying himself. His honor says the party caught about 400 trout shot at deer and elk and altogether had a good time. Judge Stearns left his wife and family at his father's place at Oakland

POLK COUNTY CROPS.—A prominent farmer of Polk county who was in town yesterday states that the wheat in that county is about all cut and will yield an average crop. The amount of spring sown wheat was small. Oats are short and potatoes will make a small crop. Owing to unfavorable weather in the spring potatoes generally did not come up well and the crop will be small. Polk county appears to be prospering, as a bank is to be started at Dallas.

HEROIC DEED

A Montana Woman Rescues Three Persons from Drowning and Perishes Attempting to Save the Fourth

[Butte special to Helena Independent July ...]

A letter from Judge Armstrong, of the Upper Sun river gives the particulars of the drowning of Miss Jane McArthur formerly of this city in a heroic effort to save the lives of others. The letter is undated but it is presumed the catastrophe took place last Wednesday. Miss McArthur a year or two ago went into the cattle business in the section named and at the time of the accident was encamped on the banks of the Sun river with her old mother and two hired men. The men were gone fishing down the river. Judge Armstrong with his wife and daughter of 16 a son of 1... and his spinster sister attempted to ford the river with a four horse team. Coming down the bank the horses became unmanageable and ran into deep water upsetting the wagon and spilling the family into the rapid current. Armstrong could not swim and held to the lines while the other four were left struggling in the river. Miss McArthur who was an excellent swimmer, saw the accident and ran to their assistance throwing off her heavier clothing by the time of reaching the bank. She plunged into the water seized the boy and swam ashore with him then went back and brought the girl ashore and next Mrs Armstrong. Though very much exhausted she swam out again to rescue the sister who was a woman about fifty pounds heavier than herself. The woman was already in a drowning struggle and seized her rescuer resulting at length in both sinking and losing their lives. The bodies were recovered a few hours after. Miss McArthur was a typical Montana girl and had made a small fortune by her own efforts. She had a herd of 100 cattle twenty five horses two four horse teams and $800 in money at the Sun river ranch also a valuable ranch near Butte. Her body was sent to Bozeman to be buried beside her sister

Fierce Forest Fires—Overrun by Weevil—Election of Officers—General Notes

The people in the country adjacent to Albina on the north have been in terror for several days past in consequence of fierce forest fires raging in that vicinity. Some parties clearing land set fire to brush to burn it up and supposed that all the fire had died out but on last Wednesday quite a strong breeze sprung up and revived the smouldering embers into a roaring fire which has been raging in the timber ever since. One party lost 300 cords of wood on Friday. On Monday the flames spread to the premises of Mr Joseph De Lay and last night were burning at a lively rate among a pile of cordwood. Nearly 1000 cords have been consumed. Several families have been compelled to move out in consequence of the flames and considerable apprehension is felt for the safety of the town

Mr Hunt says that all the talk about trouble ensuing if Chinese are put to work amounts to nothing. This talk is all made by a few agitators, men who ... want to work, but who hang about saloons ... the road and try to stir up trouble. The genuine working men have too much sense and understand their own interests too well to interfere with the progress of the work well knowing that any thing of the kind would only react against themselves in the future. The work must be done within a stated time and if the offer of good wages and good fare cannot secure white men enough to do it Chinese must of necessity be employed.

THE COURTS.

COUNTY COURT

Estate of James John deceased order admitting will to probate

Guardianship of William Withrow a minor guardian licensed to compromise settlers claim

Estate of H L McCoy deceased September ... 1886 set for hearing of final account.

ORDERED TO MAKE A DEED

In the county court yesterday Judge Catlin made the following order in the matter of the petition of Lillie A James guardian of George V James as to a deed to a block of property in Couch addition:

The petition of Lillie A James guardian of George V James an insane person coming now to be heard and it appearing to the court that the facts stated in the petition are true and that said George V James did on December 1 188 sell and enter into a contract with James Steel to convey to him block 1... Couch addition for a consideration of $16 000 half of which has been heretofore paid by Steel to George James. And that at said date Steel executed to James his promissory note for $8000 for the remaining portion of the purchase money. And that at the same time George V James in consideration of $6000 loaned executed to Steel his promissory note. And that on the 15th day of March 1886 Steel filed a complaint in the state circuit court against George V James and Lillie James the petitioner herein praying to have said transaction concerning the sale of land rescinded and to have said promissory note given by Steel given up and canceled and to recover one year's interest paid thereon and for a decree for $8000 and interest from December 1 1882. And that it is necessary for Lillie A James as guardian of George V James to execute and tender to said James Steel a deed of said block in accordance with said contract. And that if the prayer of said complainant is granted it will be very detrimental to the estate of George V James. It is now by the court ordered that Lillie James as the guardian of George V James is hereby authorized to execute a deed to James Steel, conveying to him said block 1... Couch's addition on the payment of the balance due and to perform such other acts as may be proper and necessary to a full and complete settlement of said matters

APPEALED

A short time ago I H Fisk got a verdict by a jury in the state circuit court against D V B Henarie Peter Donohoe L Martin Thomas S Martin Edward Martin and John D Wilcox for $0,000 being commission for finding a purchaser for a parcel of land known as the Dalles Military Wagon road. After the verdict had been rendered defendants made a motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict and Judge Smith allowed the motion and gave judgment against plaintiffs June 30th last for $..2 9. costs and disbursements thereby setting aside the verdict of the jury. Plaintiff has filed notice of an appeal to the supreme court on the following grounds:

Error of the court in sustaining and allowing defendant's motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict

In holding that the complaint did not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action against the defendants also as to the defendant Peter Donohoe

In refusing to allow plaintiff's motion for judgment on the verdict and in rendering judgment against the plaintiff for costs.

Actual New York Cost.
Our entire stock of Pantaloons, comprising all grades, are offered at their actual cost. Our reason for selling these goods for cost is, that in many of the lines the sizes are broken, and as we always aim to have all sizes that are in demand, we place these before the public at cost.
Our Mr. A. STEINBACH is in New York city, having our Fall and Winter Stock manufactured under his personal supervision. He sends us word that his purchases are immense; consequently we will need all our space to store our Fall and Winter Goods, which is another reason for closing out these lines.

THE CUTTING CASE.

The United States Demands the Prisoner's Release.

AND MEXICO P UMPLY REFUSES.

The Correspondence in the Case Laid before Congress—The Foreign Affairs Committee Takes Action.

WASHINGTON, Aug 2.—In response to the resolution of the senate asking for information concerning the alleged illegal detention of A. K. Cutting by Mexican authorities at Paso del Norte the president transmitted to the senate to-day the report of the secretary of state, together with a voluminous mass of correspondence relative to the case. Under date of July 1 United States Consul Brigham at Paso del Norte forwarded to United States Minister Jackson at Mexico a full statement of the facts attending the arrest and imprisonment of Cutting and an announcement of his (Brigham's) failure to secure any reply to his application for a fair trial or release on bail of Cutting. On July 6th the United States minister sought from M. Marescal, Mexican secretary of foreign affairs, proper relief for Cutting. The following day M. Marescal replied that he had recommended the governor of Chihuahua to see that prompt and full justice was administered. On July 1[illegible]th Consul Brigham stated that Cutting was still a prisoner, and nothing had been done for his release.

The secretary says that the imprisonment of this American citizen having thus continued for a full month without explanation or prospect of release, the Secretary Bayard on July 19 addressed a telegram to Minister Jackson instructing him to demand of the Mexican government the instant release of A. K. Cutting. This was followed on July 20 by the instruction of the secretary to Minister Jackson reciting all the preceding correspondence and facts and stating the legal position assumed by this government as the ground for demanding the release of its citizen.

A [illegible] REFUSAL

Minister Jackson on July [illegible] telegraphed the refusal of the Mexican government to accede to the telegraphic demand of Secretary Bayard for Cutting's release, which was followed by another telegram giving a statement of the Mexican reasons.

Consul Brigham on July [illegible] telegraphed that the government of Chihuahua was pushing the trial of Cutting, who ignored the proceedings.

On July 27 the secretary mailed additional instructions to Minister Jackson. The secretary in this letter refers to the claim of the Mexican minister here based on Mexican laws whereby jurisdiction is assumed by Mexico over crimes committed against Mexicans in the United States or any foreign country, and his contention that under this a publication of libel in Texas was made cognizable and punishable in Mexico. The claim of jurisprudence by Mexico was peremptorily and positively denied by Secretary Bayard, who declared that he would not assent to or permit the existence of such extra territorial force to be given to the Mexican law. Mr Romero, he says, finally assured him that Cutting would be released in a very short time.

Convinced of the friendly and conciliatory spirit influencing the Mexican government, the secretary informed the consul that in his opinion all questions of conflicting interests between the two governments can without difficulty be amicably, honorably and satisfactorily adjusted.

AN IMPORTANT PRECEDENT

The report says, touching the Mexican laws cited by Mr Romero: This conflict of law is even more profound than a literal difference of corresponding statutes, for it affects the underlying principles of security to personal liberty and freedom of expression which are among the main objects sought to be secured by our framework of government. The present case may constitute a precedent fraught with the most serious results. The alleged offense may be and undoubtedly in the present case is, within the United States held to be a misdemeanor not of a high grade, but in Mexico it may be associated with penal results of the gravest character. An act may be created by Mexico's statutes an offense of a high grade which in the United States would not be punishable in any degree. The safety of our citizens and all others lawfully within our jurisdiction would be greatly impaired if not wholly destroyed by admitting the power of a foreign state to define offenses and apply penalties to acts committed within the jurisdiction of the United States. The United States and the states composing this Union contain the only forum for the trial of offenses against their laws, and to concede jurisdiction to the laws of Mexico over the Cutting case as stated in Consul Brigham's report would be to substitute the jurisdiction and laws of Mexico for those of the United States over offenses committed solely within the United States.

CUTTING'S ALLEGED OFFENSE

The offense alleged is the publication in Texas by a citizen of the United States of an article deemed libelous and criminal in Mexico. No allegation of its circulation in Mexico by Mr Cutting is made, and indeed no such circulation was practicable or even possible, because the arrest was summarily made on the same day of the publication in the English language in Texas on the coming of the alleged writer or publisher into Mexico. Mexican correspondence accompanying Mr Marescal's refusal to release Cutting, found in accompaniments to Minister Jackson's dispatch of July 2[illegible], 1886, shows that the 186th article of the Mexican code is the ground of this jurisdiction claim. Under this pretension it is obvious that any editor or publisher of any newspaper article within the limits of the jurisdiction of the United States could be arrested and punished in Mexico if the same were deemed objectionable to the officials of that country, after the Mexican methods of administering justice, should he be found within those borders.

"Aside from the claim of extraditional power thus put forth for the laws of Mexico and of extending their jurisdiction over alleged offenses admittedly charged to have been committed within the borders of the United States, are to be considered the arbitrary and aggressive proceedings, which as measured by the constitutional standard of the United States destroys the substance of the judicial trial and procedure to which Cutting has been subjected."

In transmitting the document to congress the president in a brief communication says as to the inquiry contained in the resolution whether any additional U. S. troops have been recently ordered to Fort Bliss, "I answer in the negative."

ACTION OF THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, Aug 3.—The house committee on foreign affairs called a meeting to-day and took up and considered the resolutions introduced by Representatives Belmont and Crain and Latham in relation to the Cutting case and also the correspondence on that subject furnished by the secretary of state. Representative Latham appeared in person before the committee in support of his resolution and finally the following preamble and resolutions were drawn up by Representative Crain:

WHEREAS, A. K. Cutting, an American citizen, is wrongfully deprived of his liberty by Mexican officials at Paso del Norte, in the republic of Mexico, and

WHEREAS, The Mexican government refuses to release said Cutting upon demand of the president of the United States, and

WHEREAS, The government of Mexico alleges as a reason for its refusal to comply with such demand that said Cutting is guilty of violating a Mexican law upon American soil, and

WHEREAS, The house of representatives, while appreciating the disposition shown by the government of Mexico to carry out its international obligations, can never assent to the doctrine that citizens of the United States may be prosecuted in a foreign country for acts done wholly upon American soil; therefore be it

Resolved, first, That the house of representatives approve the action of the president of the United States in demanding the release of said A. K. Cutting.

Resolved, second, That the president of the United States be and is hereby requested to renew the demand for the release of said A. K. Cutting.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted. They will be laid before the house by Chairman Belmont to-day and immediate action requested.

THE SITUATION GRAVE

WASHINGTON, Aug 3.—A member of the foreign affairs committee holding close relations with the administration stated to-night that the adoption of the Cutting resolutions should they pass the house to-morrow, would imply much more than is generally supposed. In the first place, he said, Mexico has been asked to release this man Cutting. Mexico has refused and has given reasons. Congress deems those reasons insufficient and requests the president to renew the demand. Should this renewed demand be refused our minister will be at once withdrawn and then probably an extra session of congress would have to be called. Mr Belmont, chairman of the house committee on foreign affairs, is working most earnestly for the release of Mr. Cutting.

FROM EL PASO

EL PASO, Tex, Aug 3.—Several days ago the Mexican authorities said that Cutting would receive his sentence last Saturday, but the promise was not kept. It is now said by them that sentence will be pronounced Wednesday to a certainty. The [illegible] del Norte has become very insolent towards Americans. They seem to think that the United States has backed square down and that [illegible] weakness. It is reported that [illegible] said that if Texas were left out [illegible] the remainder of the United States [illegible] a meeting of citizens of El Paso [illegible] the call for which was [illegible] by the [illegible] Paso. The [illegible] will be held to-night [illegible] Grand Central ho[illegible] Ireland in [illegible] Texas frontier and [illegible] outrages on American [illegible] must not be shot down in cold blood by the Mexican authorities."

A CONSERVATIVE PROTEST

EL PASO, Aug [illegible].—On Monday [illegible] a meeting was held [illegible] the [illegible] taken by [illegible] outrages on the [illegible] threatens to [illegible] Resolutions were [illegible] objected as to [illegible] has been published [illegible] ers, merchants and business men of El [illegible] reads as follows:

We undersigned [illegible] that we repudiate [illegible] protest against [illegible] adopted by the [illegible] upon our general government for [illegible] pending international questions with Mexico [illegible] state that we have confidence in the integrity and ability of our government and the present administration to protect American citizens abroad. And while we heartily concur in so much of said resolutions as urges upon the government the necessity of prompt and energetic measures to vindicate the rights of citizens of the United States in Mexico and desire to [illegible] the earnest attention of those in power to this most important matter, and while we pledge ourselves when necessary to heartily support our government in demanding and enforcing, even by arms, proper respect of our citizens and our flag, we trust that the pending difficulties may be amicably settled without harm to the honor of either nation and that the friendly relations now existing may continue between the two republics."

Cutting's sentence will be pronounced to-morrow, and he expects to be taken at once to the penitentiary at Chihuahua. He is down hearted to-day for the first time since his incarceration.

ENGLAND

CAUSES OF THE DULL TIMES

LONDON, Aug 3.—The final report of the commission appointed by the conservative government in 1885 to inquire into the causes of the depression of trade will soon be issued. The report will announce that the commission has not found any evidence of depression as regards restriction of trading operations. The volume of British trade has increased more than commensurately with the growth of population. Low prices and consequent diminished profits constitute the only evidence of depression. There has been a greatly prolonged period of overproduction owing to a vast increase of wealth in the country. The commission does not believe that legislation regarding labor has injured trade and deprecates an increase in the number of hours of labor and diminution of wages. The report distinctly favors trades unions. The commission considers the recent failure of the agricultural production the main, if not the sole cause of the diminution of home trade, which otherwise the commission believes would be in a satisfactory condition. The condition of the working classes the report says has greatly improved in the past twenty years. Competition both home and foreign trade is greatly increased, especially as regards Germany, whose trade is improving and pressing England closely at home and abroad. No fiscal alteration is suggested in the report and no reference is made to protection or reciprocity. The commission recommends that the British consuls report more frequently and suggest that the British [illegible] adapt their manufactures to the necessity of foreign markets, in which respect the commission says Germany excels.

POLITICAL NOTES

LONDON, Aug 3.—It is believed the queen will open parliament in person.

The following additional appointments have been officially announced: Edward Clarke, solicitor general; Arthur Bower Forwood, secretary to the admiralty; Ellis Ashmead Bartlett, civil lord of admiralty; Lord Harris, political secretary to the war office.

Much importance is attached to Balfour's address to his constituents as reflecting the views of Lord Salisbury. Balfour says the decisive verdict of the country on the Irish policy of Gladstone makes it clear that the majority of the people are opposed to any loosening of the bonds knitting the United Kingdom. In spite of the additional difficulties with which Mr Gladstone's recent action has loaded on the already intricate problem, the government will pursue a policy just to every interest of Ireland and generous to every Irish aspiration. The government will be firm in execution of the law while striving to remove the chief evils which Ireland suffers.

The members of the Gladstone ministry surrendered the seals of office to-day to the new ministers. The members of the two ministries lunched with the queen. Lord Salisbury will remain a guest of the queen until Monday.

IRISH-RUSSIAN INTRIGUES

LONDON, Aug 3.—The police have, it is stated, been informed of the existence of intrigues by Irish-Russian dynamiters against the English government. Detectives will be stationed at different Russian ports and all arrivals from Russia to Great Britain will be closely watched and the vessels searched.

HERBERT SPENCER ILL

LONDON, Aug 3.—Herbert Spencer is seriously ill at his residence in London, suffering from nervous prostration and insomnia. Sir Andrew Clarke, the distinguished physician, is in daily attendance upon him.

THE CHANGE OF GOVERNMENT

LONDON, Aug 3.—The incoming and outgoing ministers have gone to Osborne castle to see the queen. The latter will surrender the seals of office and the new ministers will be entrusted with them.

DISASTROUS EXPLOSION

LONDON, Aug 3.—An explosion of coal gas occurred in the hold of the Norwegian bark [illegible] at [illegible] to-day. Six men were fatally injured.

SALEM NOTES

SALEM, Aug [illegible]

A daughter was born to the wife of Dr. J. C. Boyd on Saturday morning.

There are several flyers at the fair ground race course in training for the coming fair.

Secretary Gregg of the state fair is notifying the several division judges of their appointment.

A. [illegible] had his left thumb severed at the lower joint Sunday while leading a horse behind a buggy.

Mrs A. F. Gilbert and little daughter Claudia are at Yaquina, guests at the Bay View house, Newport.

Miss Emma Abell, who has been visiting Miss Casper in this city for two weeks, returns home to-day.

Rev. J. A. Hallenbaugh and wife and Professor S. A. Davis and wife are rusticating in the mountains along the Abiqua.

Two Chinamen were arrested Saturday for opium smoking, but they were discharged by Recorder Bowie on some technicality.

Owing to the open and exposed condition of the State house Secretary Earhart has placed an extra night watchman on duty there for the time.

Harry, son of James G. and Flora Rennie, aged 1 year 5 months and [illegible] days, died at the residence of his grandparents, J. H. Price and wife, on Saturday.

Mrs [illegible] Levy, Master Alfred Levy, Miss Bertha Levy of this city and Miss Nettie Lowe of San Francisco arrived here on Saturday evening from the bay city.

Rev. [illegible] J. Thompson, D. D., has accepted the presidency of the Albany Collegiate institute. He will not remove his residence from this city for some time, however.

Charley G. Winkler, who made many friends here as local manager of the electric light works, has gone to Walla Walla to put in a plant for the Oregon Electric Light company.

News was received here yesterday announcing the death of the well known horse breeder G. W. Peck, near Amity, [illegible]. He was 64 years of age and was well and favorably known in Oregon.

Superintendent [illegible] returned yesterday from Olympia with Frank Mossman who escaped from here [illegible] years ago. Mossman has seven months [illegible] to serve.

Nothing has been heard of the pile driver for the bridge since last week. It was the [illegible] and a half [illegible] side of [illegible] but as it has to be lined up all the way its progress is very slow.

On Friday a seven year old son of Dan Robert[illegible] living about five miles south of this city was arriving [illegible] his back and running down hill. Missing his footing he fell, fracturing his left thigh bone.

Cards have been received in this city announcing the marriage at Eugene City July [illegible] of Miss Mary Dorris to Seymour C. [illegible], a former resident of this place and formerly state librarian. Friends in this city extend congratulations.

The electric lights in this city were lighted for the first time on Saturday night. There are ten of the street lamps, and three business houses already lighted by electricity. The lights burn very evenly, with but very little flickering, and give excellent satisfaction. The state house plant will be in working order and ready for the circuit by the 1st of this or the first of next week. The lights are a great improvement over the old coal oil street lamps.

ALBANY COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE

For some twenty years the Presbyterian church has maintained a collegiate institute at Albany. It has done good work, but has always been hampered by the lack of an endowment fund, without which it seems impossible to place an institution of learning upon a substantial and permanent basis.

Renewed efforts have been made during the past three years to secure an endowment, but for various reasons the efforts were not successful and the condition of the institute was very precarious. But the board of trustees, most of whom reside in Albany, feeling the importance of the school, have taken up the matter of an endowment and of the management of the institute with considerable vigor. Knowing that the success of an endowment often depends upon the management, their first duty has been to secure a president. They have been very wise and exceedingly fortunate in their choice, which has fallen on Rev. [illegible] J. Thompson, D. D., the well known and efficient pastor of the Presbyterian church of Salem. Dr. Thompson's success in his church work at Salem has been [illegible] church the second in size [illegible] in the Northwest [illegible] Thompson has an extended professional record in the East. He was one of the first graduates of the state university of [illegible]. [illegible] was called to the chair of mathematics [illegible] years. While occupying this position [illegible] widely [illegible] the [illegible] university. [illegible] any other person in the state [illegible] understand [illegible] Thompson has earned and wears the degree of Ph. D. and D. D.

[illegible] trustees [illegible] The school will open [illegible] about September 6th. The endowment will be urged [illegible] the increased growth and usefulness of this school.

A Remedy for Lung Diseases.

Dr Robert Newton, late President of the Eclectic College of the City of New York and formerly of Cincinnati, Ohio, used Dr. WM. HALL'S BALSAM very extensively in his practice, as many of his patients now living and restored to health by the use of this invaluable medicine can amply testify. He always said that so good a remedy ought to be prescribed freely by every physician as a sovereign remedy in all cases of lung diseases. It cures Consumption, and has no equal for all pectoral complaints.

COMMERCIAL.

TUESDAY, Aug 3.

Overland receipts include 960 [illegible] 60 bbls spirits, car wagons, [illegible] cars implements, 325 [illegible] glass, 142 bdls sheet iron, 30 plates, 287 bdls iron, [illegible] bbls candy, [illegible] butts, [illegible] cs tobacco, [illegible] cs cigars, 16 cs boots and shoes, 40 bls gunny bags, 40 cans 1 bbl paint, [illegible] bbls oil, 42 cses bacon, 50 cs lard, 660 cs baking powder, 12 bls [illegible] bagging, [illegible] cs hats, 4 buggies, 163 bxs bottles, 183 pkgs raw wagon stuff, 56 bdls shovels, 64 bxs stamped ware, 10 bxs tin, 1 bbl whisky, 1 piano, 20 cs blankets, 12 cs dry goods, [illegible] cs corsets, [illegible] cs shirts, 1 cs [illegible] wear, 8 cs comforts, 4 cs clothing, 1 cs [illegible] goods.

Str Alameda from San Francisco Monday for Australia carried 2352 cs salmon for Sydney, 110 cs for Auckland, 1500 cs for Melbourne, 10 cs for Levuka, 50 cs for Dunedin, 100 cs for Nelson, 150 cs for Hobart and 100 cs for Wellington, a total of 4 [illegible] cases.

The San Francisco Commercial News has this to say of California's prospects: Harvesting is now in full blast throughout the state and various conflicting reports as to the outturn are in circulation. The extreme estimates of a month or two ago are no longer adhered to as the damage in the northern counties by the hot winds last spring was more serious than was believed at the time, while the yield per acre in other sections has not been up to estimates. While this has a rather depressing tendency the fact remains that [illegible] the average amount of wheat and barley [illegible] be sent to market this year, while returns received for fruits and wine will more than make good any deficiency in quantity and the wool clip has been marketed at good prices. On the whole therefore the state is in a prosperous condition and with the large immigration gives a fairly good trade to jobbing merchants. Except in such lines as hops, canned salmon and fruits the general tone of business is quiet and the changes are neither numerous nor important, but the volume of business and the profits realized are probably fully up to the average of midsummer trade for the past few years.

PRODUCE RECEIPTS—Past twenty four hours: [illegible] cts wheat, 14 bbls flour, [illegible] ctls oats, 115 ctls barley, [illegible] lbs wool, 135 lbs hides, 88 cs eggs, 4 bxs fruit, [illegible] cs butter, 180 sheep, [illegible] cattle. Also 7[illegible] lbs wool, 3555 lbs hides, 15 bxs fruit from the eastern section.

FREIGHTS—The Arthurstone Iron and Carrier Dove wood are on the open list. Additions to the en route list are Eurydice, John Gambles and Lumenoll. Others are spoken of but not definitely stated to be coming. The Martha Fisher is said to be secured to arrive. The Crown of Italy came under charter to Sibson, Quackenbush & Co.

WHEAT—Foreign markets steady with British imports light for a week. The eastern markets fell off at noon. San Francisco is idle. Our market is inactive, what business there is passing being in the interior.

OATS—No material change as but few offering. The nearness of new lends a soft undertone to the market.

HOGS—Steady at 4c.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Aug 3.—Governments were dull and unchanged. A feature of news to-day was the publication of the Fleming-Olcott plan for reorganization of the Texas & Pacific. No agreement could be made with the Starr committee, and the stock declined sharply after the first slight advance in the early morning. News from the corn belt was favorable to-day and under this influence with encouraging utterances of Chicago people grangers were held firm against large offerings of stock. Among Vanderbilt stocks Michigan Central was prominent for its strength during the forenoon, but gave way later. There was a flurry in money towards the close, the price running up to [illegible] per cent, which depressed prices. The market was heavy in early dealings, but exceptional strength in Omaha, Central Pacific, Union Pacific and Canada Southern rallied the remainder of the list and early losses were generally restored. Before noon the market had become dull and listless with a heavy undertone, and this state of affairs continued until the close, which was rather heavy. Best prices were made in the first half hour and the lowest in the last half hour. The net result of to-day's business is a decline in almost everything on the active list.

The Mail and Express says: There was some pressure to sell mining shares which however resulted in but few transfers. Bechtel sold at 0, Bodie 60, Hale & Norcross $2 35.

The passage of the Northern Pacific railroad forfeiture bill in the house yesterday afternoon [illegible] the railroad lobby. It will least a shadow of gloom over the unhappy [illegible] railroad lobby [illegible] who can credit up the defeat of this scheme to the World. The house bill passed yesterday adds 31,000,000 acres to the 6 000 000 forfeited by the senate. A good day's work for the people.

Philadelphia Ledger.

Again it may be asked, what becomes of all the 'converts' made by "evangelists" of the Sam [illegible] description during the season of psychological emotion attendant upon their sensational preaching? How many of the converts hold fast to that which is good?

FOREST FIRES

[illegible]

For some two months past forest fires have been burning on the Skagit river, in the vicinity of Mt. Vernon. They were by ranchers clearing land, as is usual at this season of the year. The fires were kept within bounds until late Saturday night when the wind suddenly arose and spread the fires [illegible] timber. From Mr. McKay, of the firm of McKay & Millett, it was learned to-day further particulars. On Saturday night, [illegible] the fire swept [illegible] and logger in [illegible] fell and put out [illegible] acres of timber were destroyed [illegible]. The following losses were sustained: [illegible] A. Barlow, tools and bridges, $300; McKay & Millett, [illegible]; Longfellow's camp, [illegible], $1600. Mr [illegible] 10 acres, [illegible]

[illegible] DEATH

[illegible] Marion Hoover, well known [illegible] for over forty [illegible] years, died last Tuesday [illegible] aged nearly 83 years. On Tuesday afternoon he was in town dressed up in his best clothes and informed us that he came to get his picture taken to send to his sister in the East, but his picture was not taken. He left [illegible] absent from town. He then went home, ate a hearty supper and then went to bed, and next morning he was found dead, apparently having died of heart disease. Ill-ness and old age forced him to the hospital, but he continued to work until the day of his death, and was respected and mourned by many friends here.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

WALLA WALLA.

Walla Walla is to have the electric light.

It is reported that C. H. Warner will tender his resignation of the land office.

PORT TOWNSEND.

A movement is now on foot to organize an electric light company in this city. It is to be a joint stock company with a capital stock of $13 000, $5000 of which has already been subscribed for. When the remainder of the stock shall have been taken the company will begin operations.

WHATCOM.

Reveille: An immense crop of hay, peas, potatoes and cabbage will be raised in Whatcom county this season. To these must be added the dairy products, fruits, honey and bacon, 80 per cent of which will be for export. Surely there is not a better opportunity offered for the establishment of a produce exchange than is presented here at Whatcom.

Rev Oss, who is in the East negotiating for an endowment of $10,000 for the proposed academy on Whidby Island, has succeeded in obtaining half of the amount and expects to procure the balance in a short time. The people of Whidby Island have subscribed a fund sufficient to purchase the property known as the Haywarden House, but on condition that the Congregationalists, under whose auspices the academy is being founded, shall procure the endowment of $10,000. This will not interfere with the Lynden school. There is room for both.

LINCOLN COUNTY.

A heavy hail storm prevailed Thursday in the north and northeast section of this county, doing much damage to crops, breaking windows, etc.

William Miller, formerly a resident of Egypt precinct, north of Davenport, is reported to have been killed by the Indians in the Calispel country while out prospecting.

Mr Weaver, proprietor of the Weaver saw mill recently burned near Larene, says he intends to repair and rebuild his mill and have it in running order by September 1.

Mr. Buell of Deep creek, who was cutting grain on Mr Breeze's place with a reaper, fell off the machine dead a few days ago. A few moments before he was apparently in good health. The team went on through the field and down to the creek, where they were seen by a passer by, who thinking something was wrong, traced the machine back through the field and found the man lying dead, seemingly never having moved after falling.

OLYMPIA.

Capt. Munroe says that the fine new boat which is being built for the Island route, will succeed the Phantom within sixty days.

Hon John F. Gowey, United States register of lands, retired August 1, and his successor, Mr. John Y. Ostrander, assumed the duties of the office.

On Thursday afternoon a logger named John Reed, while working at McLeod's camp at South Bay, was caught between two logs and his leg was so badly broken that it is feared the limb must be amputated.

Partisan: Every grand jury for several years past has reported condemning our court house as unfit for the purpose for which it was erected. The courthouse is simply a disgrace to Thurston county, and should be at once replaced with a commodious building, suitable for all county offices, with necessary fire proof vaults attached. The district clerk has a cramped office full of records and papers which would be an almost incalculable loss in case of fire, and which could never be replaced. It is criminal on the part of Thurston county commissioners to take the risk in this matter. There is not, perhaps, a voter in the county who would vote "nay" on the question of the erection of a new courthouse.

SPOKANE FALLS.

Spokane Falls will attempt to enforce the Sunday law, and a test case is now in progress.

W. Newport, of the firm of Newport & Holley, suffered a dislocation of the shoulder Saturday.

Gen M. M. Bane, late of this city, has resigned his position as a member of the board of commissioners of the territorial penitentiary, and many friends of the gentleman have urged Harry M. McCartney to apply for the vacancy.

One of the large stage coaches on Glover's Medical lake line was overturned near the corner of Main and Howard streets a few days since and several passengers were severely injured. The coach was heavily laden inside and on top, about all the available space being occupied by passengers and baggage. The driver, in making a hasty turn on the street, struck one of the horses, probably for the purpose of executing the movement in better style. The horse sprang forward and the top-heavy vehicle with its human freight overturned. All on top, including the driver, were hurt. Mr. J. J. Sullivan of Moscow, and F. P. Palmerston, of Colville, were the most seriously injured. Sullivan's face was somewhat bruised and his ankles terribly jammed. Mr Palmerston sustained [illegible] internal injuries and was also badly bruised [illegible]. His condition is [illegible] regarded [illegible]. Three other gentlemen, Wm Wolf, of Colville, Prof. J. Riley, of Moscow and Mr. S. D. Waters, were all considerably bruised, and have been under treatment.

TACOMA.

It is reported that the Roach Harbor lime kilns have been sold to a Tacoma syndicate for $40 000.

The mail steamer Washington, at the wharf yesterday morning, ran into the little Estella, commanded by Capt. Williams, and tore off her [illegible]

A man who registered at the Villard house Friday night as T. J. Gossip early yesterday morning emptied the money till in the saloon of its contents. He was seen by another boarder, who supposed him to be attache of the house.

United States Attorney White has received instructions from the attorney general to select one case, as a test case, to determine the status of school lands in this territory, and to press it to a final judgment. All other prosecutions are to be stayed until the test case is decided.

The lawyers of the counties of Clarke, Lewis, Chehalis, Mason and Thurston have in circulation a petition which is being generally signed, asking that John P. Judson of this city be appointed associate justice of the supreme court of Washington territory, to succeed Hon. John P. Hoyt, upon the expiration of his term of office in January next.

The year's assessed valuation of property in Pierce county, as given by Assessor Macready, amounts to $6,312,720, being an increase of $[illegible] 257[illegible] or over 13 per cent over last year, and $2,219,747 over that of 1884. The principal increase this year was in personal property, whereas in 1885 there were over 40,000 acres of land on the assessment roll which did not appear in 1884. Thus, while there was an increase of over 50 per cent in 1885, the largest part of that was due to the additional real property added to the roll, which for some cause had never before been assessed, whereas this year the increase has been in improvements, enhanced valuations and in personal property.

MORTALLY WOUNDED BY A SHERIFF

On last Monday evening, says the Ellensburg Localizer, Sheriff Packwood had two prisoners in charge at Tunnel City, one of them named James Johnson, being charged with an assault to commit a rape. About 10 o'clock, while removing the prisoners from Bennett's store to a cabin, Johnson told the sheriff to "go to h——" and then broke off on a run. The sheriff claims to have called to the fellow some three or four times to halt, but he heeded not, and when about forty yards away shot at him, striking him in the back, the ball ranging upward and coming out through the right breast, a little above and to the right of the navel. Dr Morrison, the railroad physician, pronounces the wound mortal. The case is a deplorable one, but the sheriff thinks he has acted in conformity with the oath he has taken as custodian of the peace of the county.

OREGON

GILLIAM COUNTY.

The 13-year-old daughter of Mrs Price, of Hardman, who was accidentally shot, with a pistol in the hands of her little brother, died two days afterward from the effects of the wound, and was laid to rest in the Hardman cemetery.

Wm Welch, of Hamilton, met with a serious accident last week, that will most likely result seriously. He was descending the Little Wall creek hill with a load of 6000 pounds when his brake gave way. He was thrown under the wheels, which passed over his chest and then over the grade, breaking his wagon to pieces and scattering the load in all directions. The team then ran off and had not yet been heard of at last accounts. Mr. Welch was taken home, where he was resting easy at last accounts, but with slim chances for his recovery.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

The opening of the Canadian Pacific has put a stop to the importation of Oregon flour into British Columbia, Manitoba now supplies the demand.

Considerable speculation has been excited by the continued absence or non appearance of a man named Thomas Cake, who was residing on a section of land on the borders of Sooke lake belonging to Mr. James Ferguson, of Rock bay. Cake disappeared some weeks ago, when he started for Cowichan, according to an old man residing in the vicinity, and who it is said has since been seen wearing Cake's clothes.

TERRITORIAL POLITICS.

Dr. Minor and Judge Hoyt have both declined to allow their names to be used for the delegateship.

Wm. Billings, present sheriff of Thurston county, has been sheriff for the last nineteen years, and now as a matter of pride desires to be re-elected, so as to make it twenty-one.

Judge J. R. Lewis has transmigrated into an honest farmer and is now engaged harvesting his barley crop in Yakima valley. According to an exchange he does most of his work under a friendly umbrella.

Port Townsend Argus: It is not improbable that the dark horse the Olympia Partisan keeps so carefully concealed while it is grooming him for the congressional race will turn out to be the Hon J. F. Gowey, ex register of the land office at Olympia.

Thurston county will present the name of Judge Francis Henry of Olympia before the territorial democratic convention, for delegate to congress. The Partisan also announces that it has a candidate in that county for the republican nomination, whose name it still holds in mysterious secrecy.

It seems that Farmington is not to have prohibition in spite of its affirmative vote. A saloon keeper at that place, Gild Holbrook, was arrested there last week for violating the prohibition law and brought to Colfax for trial, where the case was dismissed on account of the illegality of the election, the returning board reporting the vote for and against local option instead of for and against prohibition.

At the republican county convention held in Pasco, July 31, W. P. Gray and James Jamison were elected delegates to the territorial convention to be held in Tacoma September 8. No nominations were made for county officers as a call has been made for a people's convention, and it was considered best to ignore party lines and to fill the offices with the best men regardless of politics. Republican central county committee elected were W. P. Gray, chairman, James Jamison and J. I. Van Gordon.

The Colfax Commoner is an ardent admirer of Delegate Voorhees and says: "The storm of abuse that has been poured upon him by railroad organs has by no means subsided, nor is it likely to subside, in view of his growing popularity with the people. The masses are with him, and no amount of hostile criticism and vulgar abuse can impair their confidence in the man, who never varies either to the left hand or the right, but keeps steadily forward in the straight path, with the constitution for his guide and the public weal for his motive."

TURF TOPICS

Autocrat Jim, owned by Mr. Davis of McMinnville, is the latest addition to the flyers at the state fair grounds.

Next Saturday the local flyers of Salem will be given a "spin" over the course at the fair grounds. There are several pretty good horses in that city, and a very pretty trot may be expected.

Walla Walla Journal: W. H. Babb, the well known horseman, has arranged for the control this summer of Walla Walla's favorite trotter, Katy Lynch, and will bring her to this city en route to the Montana races.

Lexington Blad: Last Saturday a goodly number of sporting men assembled in Lexington to witness and bet on the race between Charley Cochran's sorrel horse and Ben Swaggart's colt, the distance being 400 yards. The stakes run for were four horses, and Ben's steed got away with the bunch by seven feet. The crowd of sports seemed to have more horses than money, and while very little of the latter was put up some ten or twelve horses and cayuses changed hands on the race.

Spokane Review: Thursday Col C. G. Bradshaw sold Lulu B. to Wm. F. Gwinn on a basis of $5000. The mare is four years old, and has the best four-year-old record in the West. She will remain in Montana and will be handled by B. C. Holly. Her best record is 2.23, made on the Butte track on the 5th of July.—Inter Mountain 18th. We understand that Lulu B. is expected to be present, together with other Montana horses, at the coming exhibition of the Washington fair association, to be held in this city September 1, 2, 3 and 4, 1886.

FARM NOTES.

A gentleman from Lewis county states that a great amount of rust had formed upon the late spring wheat throughout that county which was something very unusual for this section of the country, and that the fall crop of wheat would be damaged to some considerable extent.
